To receive commissions:
Recruit 2 downlines

Each of your downlines does the same, thus creating a binary network.

If you are able to recruit more friends, place them as your downlines' downlines and help them grow.

By doing so, you are also growing your network.

When each leg has an accumulated group PV of 300k, and you have 10k, you start getting commissions!

As your own accumulated personal PV increases, you get promoted to a higher level (receive higher commissions)...

- There is no demotion.
- No break-away even if your downlines are more successful than you!
